

Concerts In Care

SPECIALLY DESIGNED FOR ALZHEIMER'S OR DEMENTIA

ENGAGE the ARTS 2020

SEE IT. HEAR IT. FEEL IT.

$ 50/10 WEEKS OR $ 5/SESSION

TO REGISTER, CALL: 780-448-2413

CCFOUNDATION@CAPITALCARE.NET

CapitalCare Lynnwood

8740 165 St NW, Edmonton, AB

January 22

DAWN BAILEY

A versatile artist, moving fluidly from chamber music to opera, oratorio, and art song.

JOSEPHINE VAN LIER

A versatile musician and educator at ease on a variety of period instrument.

Dates and times are subject to change*

March 18

DANIEL GERVAIS

He has been playing the violin since the age of five and in 2011, became the first and only Albertan to win the Canadian Grand Master Fiddle Championship.

JEREMIAH MCDADE

Rooted in the Celtic tradition, their fiery performances capture all the energy of a down home kitchen party Instrumental virtuoso.

August 12

MERAN CURRIE-ROBERTS

A successful career as a teacher, music administrator and cellist, Executive Director of the Health Arts Society of Alberta and an active performing musician.

RAFAEL HOEKMAN

The Principal cellist for the Edmonton Symphony and Hailed by the Toronto Star as a "young musician with a bright future."

September 2

CHENOA ANDERSON

received her early musical training in her home city of Edmonton, later pursuing performance studies at the University of Toronto and the University of British Columbia.

MATTHEW HOWATT

He has held the position of acting principal bassoon with the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra and is principal bassoonist with the Red Deer Symphony Orchestra.

November 4

KERI-LYNN ZWICKER

Harp Rouge trio features a fresh take on traditional folk songs, finger-blazing jigs & reels and fiery Latin instrumentals.

TAMI COOPER

Bachelor of Music in flute performance from the UofA, and studied Jazz at MacEwan and has performed and toured since 1982 with various groups.

CapitalCare Strathcona

12 Brower Dr, Sherwood Park, AB

January 29

DAWN BAILEY

A versatile artist, moving fluidly from chamber music to opera, oratorio, and art song.

JOSEPHINE VAN LIER

A versatile musician and educator at ease on a variety of period instrument.

March 20

KERI-LYNN ZWICKER

Harp Rouge trio features a fresh take on traditional folk songs, finger-blazing jigs & reels and fiery Latin instrumentals.

TAMI COOPER

Bachelor of Music in flute performance from the UofA, and studied Jazz at MacEwan and has performed and toured since 1982 with various groups.

August 19

MERAN CURRIE-ROBERTS

A successful career as a teacher, music administrator and cellist, Executive Director of the Health Arts Society of Alberta and an active performing musician.

RAFAEL HOEKMAN

The Principal cellist for the Edmonton Symphony and Hailed by the Toronto Star as a "young musician with a bright future."

September 11

DANIEL GERVAIS

He has been playing the violin since the age of five and in 2011, became the first and only Albertan to win the Canadian Grand Master Fiddle Championship.

JEREMIAH MCDADE

Rooted in the Celtic tradition, their fiery performances capture all the energy of a down home kitchen party Instrumental virtuoso.

November 13

ETHAN FILNER

Joined the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra as Assistant Principal Viola in 2019 having moved from Ontario where he had held the same titled position.

ELISABETH MELLINGER

Began playing the oboe at the age of 11 and enjoys an increasingly active career as both a chamber music collaborator and a freelance orchestral player.

Concerts will be 45 minutes in a sensory friendly environment followed by coffee and a meet-and-greet.